

To whom it may concern:

I want to register my extreme dismay at the proposed rule changes increasing the number of media outlets which can be owned by one corporation or individual. To me, it's clear that this increasing monopolization would make our cultural life more monochromatic and our political discourse less free. I am outraged by Chairman Powell's secrecy and haste in pushing these new rules through.

Sincerely,
William Haugse A.C.E.